

Living That All May Know Jesus

To fulfill our mission, our lives must be lived in purposeful imitation of Jesus, with the goal of bringing others into an active relationship with Him. How did Jesus do this? He invited people (seekers) into fellowship with Him; He fed, clothed, and healed the needy; He spent time teaching people how to understand God's Word and building meaningful relationships with them; and He commissioned those he had taught to go out into the world to do as He had done.
